Reference is made to the announcements dated 11 August 2014. In response to evolving market conditions and client demand, FTSE has announced that they are enhancing the FTSE China 25 Index. The FTSE China 25 Index will be extended to become a 50 stock index, and will be renamed as the FTSE China 50 Index effective from the start of trading on 22 September 2014.

In view of the change in Benchmark Index, an application to change the fund's name from CIMB FTSE China 25 to CIMB FTSE China 50 was made to the Securities Commission Malaysia for which approval was obtained on 19 September 2014.

The Manager and Deutsche Trustees Malaysia Berhad has entered in to a Second Supplemental Deed dated 30 July 2014 ("Second Supplemental Deed") to amend the Deed constituting CIMB FTSE China 25 (now known as CIMB FTSE China 50) dated 19 April 2010 ("Deed") and Supplemental Deed date 8 December 2010.

Pursuant to the Second Supplemental Deed, the definitions in Clause 1.1 of the Deed are amended with effect from 22 September 2014 as follows:

"Benchmark Index" means the FTSE China 50 Index (or such other name by which the index may be known) provided by the Index Licensor or such replacement index as may be determined by the Manager, subject to the approval of the relevant authority(ies);" and

"Fund" means the ETF established by this Deed as may be modified from time to time known as the "CIMB FTSE China 50" or other name as the Manager may determine, subject to the approval of the relevant authority(ies);"

The Second Supplemental Deed was registered with the Securities Commission on 28 August 2014.

This announcement is dated 22 September 2014.
